Parent Privacy Notice - Key Information

This notice contains the key information about how and why we collect your personal data and what we do with that information.

Personal data is information about you from which you can be identified (either directly or indirectly). For example, information about your family circumstances, your financial information and photos of you.

As you may know, the School is part of King's College, Cambridge (the College). This means that the College is ultimately responsible for how the School uses your personal data. But if you have any questions about this, or about how your information is used, you can speak to the School Bursar.

We use your personal data in order to:

- carry out our obligations and enforce our rights under our contract with you;
- teach your child and our other pupils;
- look after your child and others, such as other pupils and staff;
- enable the School to comply with its legal obligations, to assist the School regarding its management and operation, and to advance and protect the School's interests, objects and reputation; and
- fundraise, market and promote the School. For example, by writing to you about fundraising for a new school project.

We set out below examples of the different ways in which we use your personal data and where that personal data comes from:

- We obtain information about you from admissions forms and from your child's previous school. We may also get information from professionals, such as doctors and from local authorities;
- We will have information about any family circumstances which might affect your child's welfare or happiness;
- We will process information about you in relation to the payment of fees and for risk management and compliance purposes. In some cases, we get information about you from third parties such as credit reference agencies or from your child's previous school(s);
- We may take photos or videos of you at School events to use on social media and on the School website. This is to show prospective parents and pupils what we do here and to advertise the School. We may continue to use these photos and videos after your child has left the School;
- We will send you information to keep you up to date with what is happening at the School. For example, by sending you information about events and activities taking place (including fundraising events) and the School newsletter; and
- We will keep details of your address when your child leaves the School so we can keep you updated about what is happening at the School, to tell you about events and activities and find out how your child is progressing. We may also pass your details onto the alumni organisation which is called King's College School Association (KCSA). Further information on the alumni association can be found on the School website.

In some situations, we may need to share your personal data with third parties. For example:

- In accordance with our legal obligations, we may share information with the Independent Schools Inspectorate, the Department for Education and local authorities, for example, where we have any safeguarding concerns;

- If you have unpaid fees we may share information about this with other schools, or educational establishments, to which you intend to send your child;
 - On occasion, we may need to share information with the police or other law enforcement authorities, our legal advisors and/or our insurers; and
 - If your child has an Educational Guardian, we may need to share information with them and / or with any homestay appointed to provide accommodation.

You have the following rights regarding your personal data:

- correction of information held;
- access to information held;
- deletion of information in certain circumstances;
